SULZER FOUND GUILTY ON ALL THE CHARGES

By Associated Press.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16.—When a verdict will be reached in the impeachment trial of Gov. Sulzer depends upon the length of the speeches of his judges in explaining their votes. This applies to the remarks in secret session, one of which began with the opening of court today and the public sessions which follow.

All of the eight articles of impeachment will be discussed in the secret sessions.

He might be found guilty on all of the articles and still be permitted to retain his office. The extreme penalty will be expulsion from office and prohibition from ever again holding a position of honor or trust under the state.

Albany, N. Y., October 16.—The High Court of Impeachment, trying Governor Sulzer, adjourned shortly after 1 p. m. today to meet again at 3 p. m., when, it was announced, a start will be made on the final vote upon the guilt or innocence of the accused.

Albany, N. Y., October 16.—It was reported that the Court of Impeachment in session this morning on a ballot, voted 43 to 14 to remove Governor Sulzer. A vote to disqualify him from ever holding office in New York lost, it is said.

SULZER FOUND GUILTY

Albany, N. Y., October 16.—Every article of impeachment in the Sulzer case was voted upon separately, according to news that leaked out this afternoon, and all of them were sustained.

Those on which Sulzer is reported guilty are articles one, two, four and six of the impeachment charges.

VOLTURNO DISASTER AROUSSES CONGRESSMEN

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 16.—The need of skilled seamen to handle life boats and the Volturmo disaster, was brought up today in the discussion of the Seaman's Servitude bill. Representatives of the Seamen's Union attribute part of the loss of life on the Volturmo to inefficiency of life boat men. The senate will under agreement take up the bill and dispose of it by October 20. A bill identical in the most part was vetoed by ex-President Taft.

REPORTED MEXICANS SECURE BIG LOAN

By Associated Press.

Paris, October 16.—Representatives of government officials of Mexico have obtained a loan of $2,600,000 in Paris chiefly, according to current reports, through the influence of the Catholic party.

PAST MASTER GIVES OPINION

ALDRICH RAPS CURRENCY BILL

Declares It Full of Doctrines Repudiated By People.

IS SOCIALISTIC IN PRINCIPLE

Quoted From Woodrow Wilson's Writings to Show President Formerly Held Beliefs Contrary to Provisions of Measure—Says If It Passes Bryan Will Score Great Victory. Speaks Before Bankers.

New York, Oct. 16.—Former Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island attacked the Wilson administration currency bill, now before congress, which he declared embodied the theories of William J. Bryan. He denounced the bill as unsound, Socialistic and revolutionary, characterizing it as "an endeavor to secure by partisan legislation the triumph of the doctrines and principles which had received the repeated condemnation of the American people at the polls." He quoted from Woodrow Wilson's writing to indicate that the president, in his earlier days, had entertained beliefs contrary to the provisions of the bill.

"If the house bill should be enacted into a law," Mr. Aldrich asserted, "Mr. Bryan will have achieved the purpose for which he has been contending for a decade."

Mr. Aldrich's speech was delivered at the closing session of the national conference on currency reform. He made no reference to the so-called Aldrich plan for currency reform. He opposed many features of the Glass-Owen currency bill, but directed his strongest criticism at the provision dealing with the issue of government notes and providing for a central government board with supervision over the system as a whole.

"The proposals with reference to note issues," said Mr. Aldrich, "are radical and revolutionary in their character and at variance with all the accepted canons of economy law."

"I believe it will be found that there is no substantial limitation upon the amount of notes that can be issued under the house bill, except in requirements for reserve."

Mr. Aldrich said that "extreme pressure" was being brought to bear upon congress to enact the administration bill and that the reason given was that the adoption of the bill was necessary to fulfill promises made by the Democratic party. He traced the history of the Democratic party's attitude on the subject in earlier years and quoted President Cleveland as saying that "the people of the United States are entitled to a sound and stable currency."

UTAH LEPER LANDS IN ST. LOUIS HOSPITAL

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, October 16.—A man who last night applied at one of the hospitals for treatment for leprosy, said he is a resident of Ogden, Utah, where he has a family. The victim stated that he was pronounced a leper three years ago by an Idaho physician and was isolated, but escaped.

Water Haul Made By Revenue Men

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Pa., October 16.—The schooner Woodward Abrahams, which was intercepted off the Delaware capes and towed to this port by the United States revenue cutter, Seaton, for the examination of her cargo, was searched by eight customs inspectors and nothing found to warrant the suspicion that she was carrying merchandise to be smuggled into the United States.

The schooner, cleared Cheverly, North Carolina, October 2nd with a cargo of rock plaster.

STORM CLAIMS TWO GOVERNMENT BARGES

By Associated Press.

Highland, Mass., Oct. 16.—Two government barges were added today to the toll exacted by the Northeast gale which has been sweeping the Massachusetts coast at an average speed of sixty miles an hour for the past three days. Both barges had been anchored off Pamet River.

AUSTRIANS CELEBRATE DEFEAT OF NAPOLEON

Special to Herald.

Vienna, Austria, October 16.—A splendid military review was held here today in celebration of the Battle of the Nations, fought at Leipzig, October 16-19, 1813, when 200,000 allied armies, Austrian, Russian, Prussian, Swedes and Saxons, commanded by the Austrian Field Marshal, Prince Carl von Schwarzenberg, defeated Napoleon with 180,000 French troops.

The combined casualties were 94,000 killed and wounded. 38,000 French were taken prisoners.

WILSON SENDS FOR LEADERS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 16.—President Wilson today sent for Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, three Democrats of the Senate Banking committee, who have been regarded as opposed to the administration program for currency legislation at the present session of Congress.

The President conferred with the Senators one at a time.

"The President feels," said Hitchcock, "that by let the currency bill go over into the next session of Congress would seriously interfere with other parts of the administration program. I would like to see Democratic harmony and would like to see Africa."

Holder of King's Medal Released

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—President Wilson today commuted the sentence of Richard C. Neil, holder of a King's medal and other insignia of bravery in the Transvaal war, who has been serving a life sentence for the robbery of the postoffice at Clarington, W. Va., December 22, 1907.

Neil, although having lived at Dallas, Texas, and New Orleans, claims to be a British subject, and the British Embassy has been interested in his behalf.

He will leave at once for South Africa.

TENSE STRAIN IS UNCHANGED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 16.—The Mexican situation remains unchanged and administration officials are agreed generally in the view that Huerta will make no answer to President Wilson's latest note.

News of the latest constitutionalist victories were received without comment.

That the delicacy of the situation is unaltered is the view of the Washington government.

VOLTURNO HAS SUNK IN DEPTHS

By Associated Press.

Liverpool, Eng., Oct. 16.—No sign of the hulk of the Volturmo was seen by the Cymric on her voyage across the Atlantic. She arrived here at 7:45 this morning and reported that she had made a circular cruise around the spot where the Volturmo met her fate.

VAN DYKE VISITS QUEEN WILHELMINA

By Associated Press.

The Hague, Netherlands, Oct. 16.—Prof. Henry VanDyke, the new United States Minister to Netherlands presented his credentials to Queen Wilhelmina at the palace of Het Loo. After expressing to the Queen the complimentary wishes of President Wilson, Prof. VanDyke spoke of his own peculiar pleasure in taking up his mission.

TREATY RIGHTS MUST BE UPHELD

HOLDS DIFFERENT VIEW

McReynolds Has New Interpretation of Discriminating Tariff Rate.

Washington, Oct. 16.—There were intimations that Attorney General McReynolds will interpret the 5 per cent discriminatory duty clause in the tariff law differently than the state and treasury departments have construed it. The impression is growing that the attorney general will hold that the 5 per cent reduction in duty shall not be granted to American vessels in cases where it would conflict with the treaty rights of any nation. Under the interpretation put upon the law by the state and treasury department officials, a 5 per cent reduction was to be granted to American vessels in all cases and the same reduction to the ships of foreign governments with which the United States had treaties guaranteeing them against any discriminating duties.

Under the construction which Mr. McReynolds is likely to put upon the law the reduction will not be granted at all in cases where such treaty guarantees exist. It was learned that President Wilson will stand with Chairman Underwood against any effort to repeal this section of the tariff law. This stand of the president undoubtedly means that the clause as finally interpreted by the attorney general will be enforced, and that in cases where foreign nations seriously object, the present commercial treaties with them will have to be abrogated.

ASKS FRENCH FOR WARSHIP

By Associated Press.

Paris, October 16.—The foreign office here today received a cablegram from the French Legation at Mexico City requesting that a warship be sent at once to Mexican waters for protection.

BRITONS SECRETIVE ABOUT NEW WARSHIP

By Associated Press.

Portsmouth, Eng., Oct. 16.—Another novelty in battleships. The Queen Elizabeth, which carries a secret armament. The ship whose keel was laid on October 21, 1912, is of an entirely new type. Details of her construction have been kept secret. It is generally believed that her armament is to consist of ten and fifteen inch guns with her secondary armament of four and six inch guns.

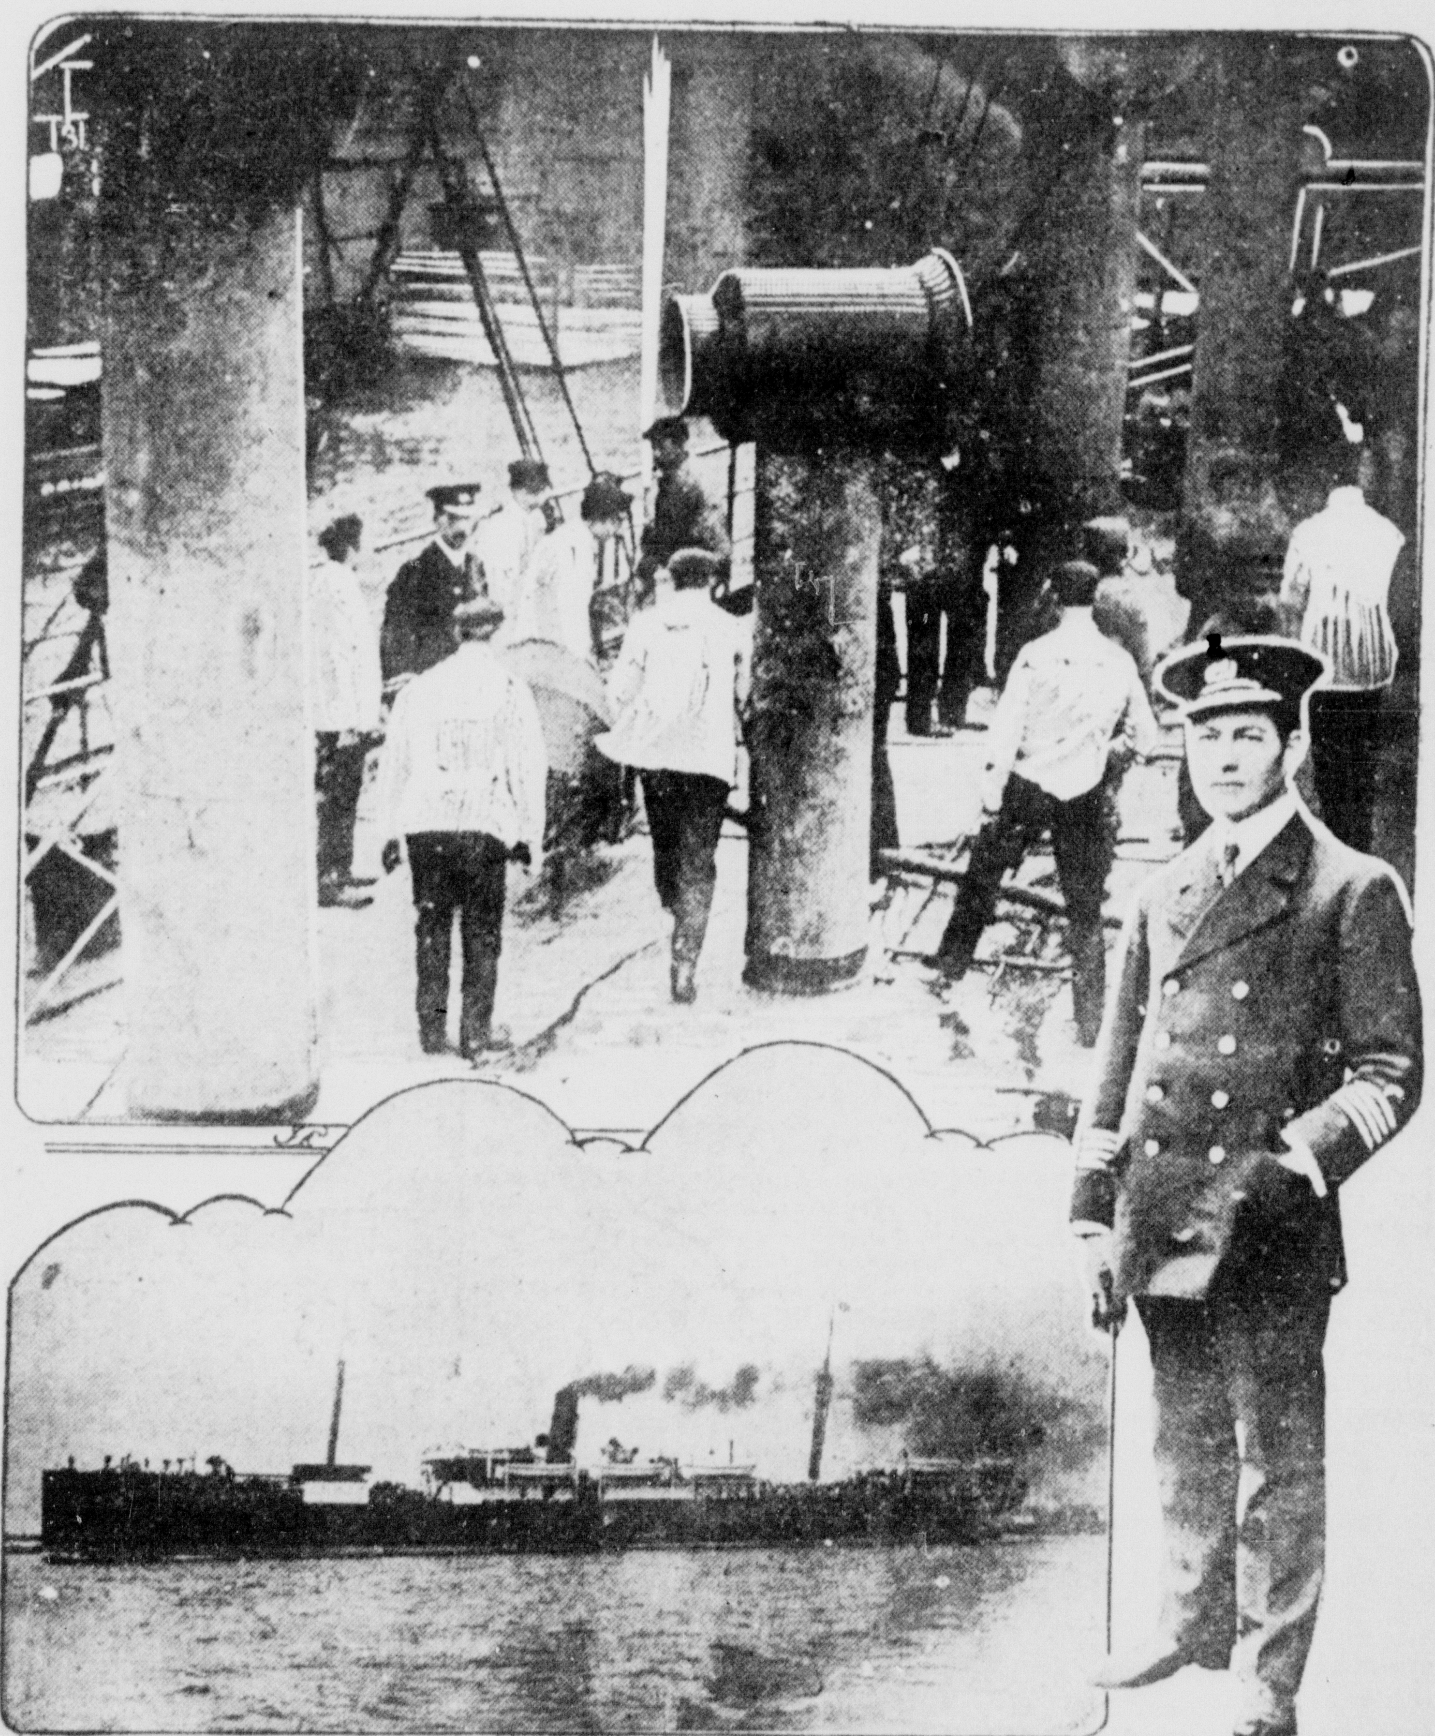

SIMPSON ARRESTED FOR MURDER IN EAST

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 16.—Robert Simpson, eighteen, negro, wanted at Welch, West Virginia, for the murder of Douglas Baisdel, was arrested here today and officer J. E. Reason of McDowell county, West Virginia, left immediately with his prisoner.

Simpson was working in a local garage under an assumed name. Police say he admitted he killed Baisdel with a knife following a quarrel over Sarah Francis.

The Ill Fated Volturmo, Her Captain and Fire Drill Which Failed to Save Ship In Actual Practice.

In a way the disaster of the Volturmo in midocean was more tragic than that of the Titanic, even if the victims were immigrants instead of personages of importance. The Volturmo's passengers were in an awful panic of death from fire or drowning for many hours. While the flames licked up the ship they huddled on deck, tearing their hair, rolling in frantic anguish or hysterical with fright. They did not know what minute they would go down to a horrible fate. Then when the fleet of rescuing liners arrived these dazed, almost dead passengers waited in utter terror for hours because of the gale before they were taken off the burning ship in safety. In the case of the Titanic the end came swiftly and there was little panic. No storm was blowing to add to the horror of the situation. Captain Francis Inch of the Volturmo was reported to have handled his men with a firm hand. He is here shown, with a picture of his ship and a fire drill aboard the vessel.

MANN CHARGES DEMME'S ARE SORE AFRAID

PUTS WILSON IN DICTATOR CLASS

Mann Excoriates Democrats For Alleged Lack of Backbone.

BOW TO WILL OF PRESIDENT

Republican Leader Exchanges Pleasantree With Ohio Member Over Inability of House Members to Leave Washington Until Currency Law Is Placed On Statute Books — Envis-
Members of Mexican Parliament.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican floor leader, characterized President Wilson as a "dictator," declaring that the president's legislative colleagues
"did not have the courage to adjourn congress when they knew full well that there is no chance whatever of passing the currency bill at this session."

"I would rather be a member of the Mexican parliament and be arrested by the dictator down there than to lack the nerve, as you Democrats do, to defy the dictator who prevents you from going home when you want to do so," said Mr. Mann. The Republican leader spoke in a facetious vein, but nevertheless he showed some earnestness in making the statement.
Mr. Mann's remarks were made following a declaration of Democratic Leader Underwood that inasmuch as there could be no general legislation considered by the house until the senate had acted upon currency bill, the house might just as well adjourn for three days at a time. He proposed a "gentlemen's agreement" to this effect. Mr. Mann, speaking for the minority, refused to acquiesce in the arrangement and asked, "Why not adjourn the session?"

"Because it is the president's wish that congress shall remain here until the currency bill is passed, and as the responsible majority it is the duty of the Democrats to uphold him in this regard," returned Mr. Underwood.
Mr. Mann said that in the absence of a final adjournment the house would have to remain on the job. "I feel like a fighting cock," observed Mr. Mann.

"I feel like an old hen," remarked Representative Bowdler of Ohio, who came back to Washington in response to an order of the sergeant-at-arms.
"You look it," snapped Mr. Mann.

While the house was laughing over this sally Mr. Bowdler told the story of how he had acquired a new pair of trousers. A week or so ago Mr. Bowdler, resting at home, received a message urging him to hasten to Washington at once. He replied: "For six months I sat in the house wearing out the only trousers I possessed. Until I get another pair I will be unable to return to Washington."

Mr. Bowdler appeared in his new trousers, but despite this addition to his stock of wearing apparel he expressed the hope that some agreement would be reached that would enable him to journey in peace to his home in Cincinnati.

Members interested in mileage allowance view with alarm the evident determination of the president to keep congress in session continuously until Dec. 1, when the regular term will begin. If this session merges into the regular term, members will not collect their mileage accounts.

DOROTHY AINSWORTH

Daughter of Mrs. Jennie Eaton
Who Will Testify at the Trial.

By American Press Association.

An important witness for the defense in the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, on trial charged with the murder of her husband, Admiral Eaton, is Miss Dorothy Ainsworth, daughter of the accused woman by her first husband.

DAUGHTER OF ACCUSED HELD IN SILENCE

HELD INCOMMUNICADO

Daughter of Mrs. Eaton Not Permitted to Meet Interviewers.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 16.—The court proceedings in the Eaton murder case lasted but half an hour. The indictment charging Mrs. Eaton with administering white arsenic to the admiral was read. The accused listened to it without any signs of emotion, after which the jury was taken to Assinippi to view the Eaton home.

Miss Dorothy Ainsworth, youngest daughter of Mrs. Eaton, is staying at the same hotel where the prosecuting attorneys are housed, and a deputy sheriff would allow no one to speak to her. Mrs. June Keyes, the other daughter, is living at another hotel, where the lawyers for the defense have taken rooms.

ROUGH SAILING AHEAD OF BROWN

FRIENDS OF LYNCH WANT TO BE SHOWN

Will Fight Effort to Dethrone National League President.

New York, Oct. 16.—Before August Herrmann of Cincinnati and other National league club owners can bring about the defeat of Thomas J. Lynch and the election of R. W. Brown of Louisville as president of that turbulent organization, they will be asked to make public reasons for their antipathy to Mr. Lynch. The friends of Lynch in organized baseball—and they include some of the most influential men in the national game—after leaving declared it would be exposed from top to bottom before the annual election is held in December.

As a matter of fact, it may be taken for granted that the American league is directly interested in the present controversy, inasmuch as the president of the National league must sit as a member of the national commission with Ban Johnson. Herrmann elected chairman of the commission from year to year by votes of the rival league presidents, so that unless Johnson and his club owners approve of Lynch's possible successor, trouble is expected. It is known that Johnson and the American league men are not in accord with the plan to elect Brown instead of Lynch.

FIGHT GOES ON

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—In the belief that the Warnes tax assessor law will not go to a referendum, its opponents have decided to contest its constitutionality in the courts. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Charles Groom of eral Hogan that suit will be filed to mandamus Graves to have placed on the ballot the names of candidates for ward and township assessor.

The New "Six"

A MOTOR THAT CAN'T BE STALLED

Here's A New Factor In Safety
An Additional Source of Comfort

The Picture Tells The Story

Any motor might lose its spark unexpectedly; the gas might be cut off accidentally. Think of the possibilities if this should occur on a crossing.

The non-stallable motor of the New Chalmers "Six" protects you in such a case. The electric starter speeds up the motor even should the gas be cut off or the spark interrupted. It keeps it running in every emergency.

It prevents "going dead" in crowded traffic; keeps it from stalling under sudden overload.

A Guardsman Always on Duty

The starter is always ready. It comes into action automatically with the release of the clutch whenever the engine speed drops to a certain point. No need to give it a thought. Throw on the switch at the outset—that's all.

This non-stallable feature of the New "Six" gives you a sensation of security that doubles your motoring pleasure.

Where the New "Six" Is Supreme

No honest maker claims that a "Six" will get away any quicker —run any faster or climb any steeper hills, than a "four" of equal weight and horsepower.

But Oh! how much more smoothly, silently and easily it does it. The six cylinders give a continuous stream of power; there is no interval between explosions; the impulses are utterly imperceptible.

The entire absence of vibration nearly doubles the life of the car and the comfort of the passengers. You can tour day after day in the New "Six" with the comfort of your easy chair.
Ride in it once and you'll be forever spoiled for any "four."

Here's Flexibility no Four Can Equal

Take the wheel of the New Chalmers "Six." Push the switch of the electric starter and let it in the clutch.

Notice how quietly—how smoothly it moves away. See how easily and how quickly it mounts to 20—30—40 miles an hour or throttles down to two—and then off again, without shifting gear.

That's flexibility. And it's all in the motor itself; gear shifting is seldom needed. Any auxiliary gear mechanism to secure flexibility would be merely superfluous weight.

Let The Car Prove It

Come and see this wonderful "Six." Its classic beauty—its harmony of outline will fascinate you.

Let us take you for a ride in it. Its mystic silence—its velvety smoothness—its supple power will give you a new sensation in motoring pleasure—the thrill of speed with the luxury of rest.

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE?

"One fact is worth more than a thousand theories." Of late years the historic facts of the Christian religion have been denied or questioned to a remarkable degree. Under the familiar guise of "the search for truth," all sorts of vagaries have been offered to the public. Some of these are ingenious and plausible; others are crude and grotesque. In them we find ancient heresies under new names, old enemies in new uniform. But the fact remains that multitudes of well-meaning people have become unsettled and confused with regard to fundamental religious questions.

A series of Sunday evening lectures by Rev. Frederick E. Ross will be given at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, under the general theme of "Present Day Tendencies in Religion."

The object of these lectures is to point out some of the dangers in this field, and to show in the light of scripture and reason the sufficiency of evangelical Christianity. The public is most cordially invited to hear these lectures.

The subjects and dates are as follows:

- "Agnosticism, the Creed of the Doubter" November 2
- "Mormonism, Its Meaning and Menace" November 9
- "Russellism, and the Millennial Law" November 16
- "Christian Science: Its Truth and Error" November 23
- "Do We Need a New Religion?"
November 30

The annual evangelistic services at Grace church will probably begin immediately after the Week of Prayer which is generally observed by all the churches of the city.

Stevens on Invalidism.

Robert Louis Stevenson, himself the most heroic of invalids, would have agreed with Sir George Birdwood in his contempt for the valetudinarian.
"To forego all the issues of living in a parlor with a regulated temperature," he writes, "as if that were not to die a hundred times over, and for ten years at a stretch! As if it were not to die in one's own lifetime, and without even the sad immunities of death!
As if it were not to die, and yet be patient spectators of our own pitiable change! The permanent possibility is preserved, but the sensations carefully held at arm's length, as if one kept a photographic plate in a dark chamber.
It is better to lose health like a spendthrift than to waste it like a miser.
It is better to live and be done with it than to die daily in the sickroom."—

INGRATITUDE SHOWN BY GREENFIELD MAN

Mayor Shimp, of Greenfield, went to Cincinnati a few days ago for the purpose of securing the release of John Kelly, confined in the workhouse at that point, so the man could attend the funeral of his broth-suicide in Springfield and was taken to Greenfield for burial.

He secured the man's release for the day, and started on his way back to Greenfield with the fellow, who gave him the slip and escaped. He is still at large, and Mayor Shimp is of the opinion that the next man who is released upon his request so he can attend the funeral of a relative, will have to "go some."

"For the Administration"

Ex-President William H. Taft when asked for an expression of his opinion on the issues of the day said, "Until we again have an opportunity to discuss the issues I am for the administration."

That statement, coming from the man who was defeated in the late election by the present occupant of the White House is a conclusive proof of a vast change for the better in political conditions. Men are much broader in their views and much more fair in their expressions of opinion on matters political than they were only a few short years ago. Public opinion has undergone a wonderful revolution. Men, now days, not only dare to, but actually take a pride in praising the patriotic work of public servants whenever their work in the interest of the public merits commendation.

That is, the big men do. They no longer fear ostracism at the hands of party or political bosses.

Round by round the people have been tearing down the bars of prejudice which formerly separated political parties and step by step, the independent voter in ever increasing numbers, has led the grand march of progress forward closer and closer to the time when only worth of men and policies will influence people and determine the result of elections.

Ex-President Taft, when he made the remark quoted, expressed a patriotic sentiment which is proof of his fair mindedness and honesty.

How much better it would be for the nation, if more people would stop playing politics between campaigns, stop denouncing every thing members of the opposite political party do and honestly and fairly give credit when credit is due. Be like Ex-President Taft, "for the administration" until the opportunity comes round again to discuss political matters.

Qualities a Man Must Have

to Earn $50,000 a Year

J. KRUTTSCHNITT

F. A. VANDERLIP

By JULIUS KRUTTSCHNITT,
Chairman of the Board of Directors
Southern Pacific Railroad

TO EARN FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR A MAN MUST POSSESS THE ABILITY TO BE THE KIND OF MAN WHO CAN CONVINCE PEOPLE THAT HE IS REALLY WORTH FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR.

I might add that one of the best ways of convincing people that you are worth a position is to always DO YOUR WORK A LITTLE BETTER THAN THE OTHER FELLOW. If you do that and keep on doing it you need never worry about promotion. It will come of its own accord. Put a man in a freight house as a freight handler and let him handle freight a little better than any one else and he won't stay there long. Put him in a superintendent's office and let him do his work a LITTLE BETTER than any other superintendent and he won't stay there long. The theory works out no matter how high you go.

By THEODORE P. SHONTS,
President of the Interborough
Rapid Transit Company

A MAN to earn a fifty thousand dollar salary must convince the other fellow that he WOULD HAVE IT. Then it's easy.

By JAMES R. FARRELL, President of the United States Steel Corporation

FRANKLY I don't know what peculiar qualities a man must have to earn a yearly salary of fifty thousand dollars. I can pick out no peculiar traits that more than any others help a man to earn fifty thousand dollars. I am not sure that he needs any particular qualities. HE MUST JUST EARN IT.

By FRANK A. VANDERLIP,
President of the National City
Bank of New York

TO COMMAND A FORTY OR FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLAR SALARY A MAN MUST HAVE A SOUND IMAGINATION TO CORRELATE FACTS AND MAKE NEW DEDUCTIONS FROM THEM. HE MUST HAVE SOUND BUSINESS JUDGMENT, WHICH IS ONLY ANOTHER WAY OF SAYING SOUND IMAGINATION.

Then he must have good health—the good health to do more than a day's work. He must have ABILITY TO STAND STRESS. He must not give out or curl up when the strain is great.

Next he must have the personality to permit him to work with people. In other words, he must be CO-OPERATIVE. He must have the ABILITY TO PICK SUBORDINATES. No one man, no matter how bright, can do much. He has got to build an organization. And to build an organization he must have the ability to pick men and to INSPIRE THEM.

Then he must have the trite commonplaces of honesty and trustworthiness. He must have an appreciation of not only the business of his company, but a sympathetic understanding of the public point of view toward it. Our ideas are broadening of what is a public corporation, and it is the duty of a corporate manager to understand the public viewpoint. He must be AN EDUCATOR. Give a man these qualities and there will be no trouble about his earning that fifty thousand dollar salary.

Poetry For Today

WE CAN'T AFFORD.

We can't afford to win the gain
That means another's loss;
We can't afford to miss the crown
By stumbling at the cross
We can't afford the heedless jest
That robs us of a friend;
We can't afford the laugh that finds
In bitter tears an end.
We can't afford the feast today
That brings tomorrow's fast;
We can't afford the farce that comes To tragedy at last.
We can't afford to play with fire,
Or tempt a serpent's bite;
We can't afford to think that sin
Brings any true delight.
We can't afford with serious heed
To treat the cynic's sneer;
We can't afford to wise men's words
To turn a careless ear.
We can't afford for hate to give
Like hatred in return;
We can't afford to feed a flame
And make it fiercer burn.
We can't afford to lose the soul
For this world's fleeting breath;
We can't afford to barter life
In mad exchange for death.
But blind to good are we apart
From thee, all-seeing Lord;
Oh, grant us light that we may know
The things we can't afford.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

February 8, 1872.
"Happy Jack" and Kirk House "John" being unable to support themselves have taken up quarters in their beautiful home on the Columbus pike for the winter.

A married folks' leap year party came off at the residence of Mr. W. F. Willett in this place, a few evenings since, each lady escorting some other woman's husband.

It is now understood by the knowing ones that the Grand Duke and Miss Wilson will be here on the 22nd. At any rate the ladies here are going to give a Grand Leap Year ball at the Washington House in honor of their visit. The Marine band of Cleveland will furnish the music, the caller being from the court of St. James. A happy time is expected.

BLOCK SYSTEM ON B. & O. MAIN LINE

Within the next few months the block system will be installed on the main line of the B. & O. S. W., according to reliable reports from railroad men.

Some radical changes were made this week when two additional operators were placed at New Vienna, making that a 24-hour office. The Anderson office has also been changed to a 24-hour station. A night office has been opened at Hope and another at Cross, and arrangements are well under way to have the block system in working order within 60 days.

Telephones have been placed at all sidings and all stations with passing tracks.

The local branch of the road may eventually be operated by telephones, as discussed at various times during the past few years.

FARMERS EAGERLY AWAIT VETERINARIANS' ARRIVAL

Scores of Raisers of Swine Suffer Heavy Loss While Awaiting Extinction of Cholera in This County.

WORK EXPECTED TO COMMENCE WITHIN WEEK

Bulletins Have Been Mailed to all Farmers in the County and Their Aid Solicited to Make Work Successful in Every Way.

Fayette county farmers, who are losing their swine by the cholera route, are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Veterinarians from the State Veterinarian's office, to take up the cholera crusade in this county and the first men from the department are expected any day, although October 20th—next Monday—is the actual date set for opening the work here.

Drs. Edgington and Salt will be the first men on the scene to open up the preliminary work, and one of the first movements will be to post every road where the work is in progress, calling attention to the fact that the work of cholera extermination is under way, and that certain requirements must be observed for successful work.

Bulletins have been prepared for every farmer in the county, and they are urged to read the bulletin very carefully, in order to gain a more definite idea of just what will be necessary for making the extermination work effective.

Farmers from every township report the ravages of hog cholera, and many have secured the assistance of veterinarians from the state department, paying the usual fee.

In this county when the actual work opens up, all serum will be administered without cost to the farmers, and the combined assistance of all tilers of the soil who raise swine is absolutely necessary in the work. Madison township will be the scene of the first actual work, and the cholera is thick in that township so that the veterinarians will plunge at once into the heart of the epidemic.

BALDOCK DRAWS OHIO PEN SENTENCE

Walter Baldock, the Virginian who robbed the Clark Post residence on the Creek road and was arrested in Virginia a few weeks later, brought to this city and this week indicted by the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny, Thursday morning entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced by Judge Newby to the penitentiary.

Baldock was sentenced to hard labor, with no solitary confinement, and is to remain in the big prison until released according to law.

The fellow, it will be recalled, robbed the Post residence during the absence of the family, taking many valuable articles, and making his escape under cover of darkness. Cards with a description of the man were forwarded to the place from which he came, with the result that his arrest took place the moment he arrived in his home town.

MANY WESTERN BUYERS ATTEND

The usual large number of western buyers, together with a large number of prominent hog raisers from all parts of the state, attended the annual sale of J. M. Klever & Son's Immunized Poland-China pigs, held at the farm north of Bloomingburg Wednesday.

The average price of the sale this year was near the $30 mark, which was a marked increase over the general average last year.

Quite a number of the choice pigs were purchased by Fayette county farmers. Mr. Klever and son were well pleased with the result of the sale.

The ladies of Union Chapel, Yatesville, furnished a splendid lunch, which was paid for by Mr. Klever, who has for years given a free lunch to all who attended the sale.

WILLETT BLOCK HAS NEW OWNERS

Building That Escaped the Big Conflagration Two Years Ago Is Purchased by Messrs. A. S. Ballard and Will E. Dale This Morning—Is Valuable Corner Lot.

The Willett block, on the southwest corner of Main and Court street, changed hands Thursday morning, when Mary F. Willett, through her attorney, F. A. Chaffin, disposed of the property to Messrs. A. S. Ballard and Will E. Dale.

Sometime ago the property was sold to the late owner by Billie Peele Willett, of New York. The block was for a great many years the property of the late W. P. Willett.

The block is the only structure in the square which was not either destroyed or seriously damaged by the big fire which swept the block on the night of Dec. 30, 1911. It was nearly surrounded by a substantial fire wall, which saved it from serious damage.

On Main street the block fronts some 20 feet and extends back on Court street about 60 feet. It is regarded as one of the most valuable corner properties in the city. For many years it has been the home of the Leland News Stand, while the Hays Photo Gallery occupies the second floor.

No announcement of what changes, if any, will be made in this block.

LARGE CROWD GOOD PRICES

The A. B. Booco sale of blooded cattle and swine, held on the Booco farm near West Lancaster Wednesday, was attended by a mammoth crowd and good prices prevailed throughout the day.

John Entreklin, of Frankfort, was the heaviest buyer, and when the sale was ended he had expended between $1500 and $2000 for the choice offerings. Jerome Taylor of near this city was also a heavy buyer, and secured a number of the best animals in the herd.

Mr. Booco gives credit to the thorough manner in which the sale was advertised through the newspapers, Postmaster W. W. Williams, of Jeffersonville having charge of the advertising for him.

BITE OF SPIDER MAY PROVE FATAL

Robert Daily, 14, son of William Daily, of Ross county, is in a critical condition as the result of a spider bite.

The boy was in the act of getting corn from a bin Tuesday evening, when a large black spider ran up his trouser leg and inflicted a bite on the left side of his abdomen. Soon after the wound was inflicted the lad was thrown into a high fever, and his condition became grave.

Physicians think he has a chance for recovery, and have done all they can to counteract the effects of the poison.

BIG ROAST BLAZES IN WOODS

A hundred and twenty-five young people of the Presbyterian church held a big roast in the woods back of the water works Wednesday night that was a tremendous success.

The beautiful moonlight night, the big shadowy trees and the blazing logs formed a fantastic picture and laughter and song echoed merrily through the woods. There was a low dip in the ground forming an amphitheater and in this hollow the logs crackled and burned, while the guests sat in a circle above it roasting wieners, marshmallows, etc.

The crowd certainly had a jolly good time, playing hide and seek in the shadows, drop the handkerchief and other out-door games.

A male quartet, Dr. L. P. Howell, R. R. Kibler, L. E. Bowman and Walter Springer, sang a number of songs much enjoyed.

Miss Lillian VanKirk had the roast in charge.

D. T. & I. ROUND HOUSE DESTROYED

The D. T. & I. round house in Springfield, was totally destroyed by fire at a late hour Wednesday night, and two locomotives were badly damaged by the intense heat. The loss will exceed $10,000, and this is partly covered by insurance.

It was necessary to lay 8,000 feet of hose to reach the burning structure. The fire is supposed to have started from a torch which is said to have been left burning near several barrels of crude oil.

It was the sixth call the fire department had received from the round house neighborhood within the last few months. Most of the buildings have long been condemned by the state inspectors.

In Social Circles

At the home of Mr. Charles Bonham Wednesday night was solemnized an autumn wedding to which everything of beauty contributed—artistic appointments, flowers and music, a glorious moonlight night and a gay coterie of young society folks witnessing the plighting of vows between two favorite members of their set.

The bride was Mr. and Mrs. Bonham's second daughter, Myrtle May, well known as one of Washington's highly talented pianists, and hardly less noted for her quick wit and clever repartee.

The bridegroom, Mr. Carl Shoop Mallow, belongs to a prominent Fayette county family, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mallow. While active in farming at the Mallow home on the Plymouth pike Mr. Mallow, has found time to devote to the raising of fine horses and has owned several pedigreed racers of wide reputation. He has also found time to become a popular member of Washington's club and social circles, and shares with his bride in the best wishes of a host of friends.

The home was embowered in white and green, showing the expert skill of the Buck florists, and the floors covered with snowy linen. White chrysanthemums, carnations and smilax were gracefully arranged throughout the rooms.

The bridal altar, in one corner of the parlor, showed exquisite taste in its arrangement. Against a background of palms was outlined a tall arch of white, its pillars twined with great ropes of smilax studded with carnations. On either side, rising high against the pillars, were wicker floor vases of white and gold, tied with immense bows of white gauze ribbon, and holding magnificent white chrysanthemums, while white carnations sprayed from side brackets. It was a lovely altar for the petite bride, who came down the stairs on the arm of the bridegroom, a vision girlish and sweet in her bridal robes. Her gown was of old ivory brocade crepe, the train falling in graceful cascades, and the bodice having tunic of princess lace and garniture of pearls. Her tulle veil was gracefully draped with cap effect and fastened with chaplet of lilies of the valley, and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage of the Presbyterian church, awaited the young couple within the bridal arch and performed the impressive ring ceremony.

Prefacing the ceremony and adding to its beauty was the singing of two songs, "Because," and "I Love You Truly," by Miss Lois Bean, a young singer with a lovely voice from Hillsboro.

After informal congratulations the bride and bridegroom led the way to the dining room, where were assembled a merry crowd of the younger guests.

The bridal table had for its central adornment an immense white and gold basket of white chrysanthemums and fern, the handle tied with white gauze. It rested on a mirror embedded in smilax.

Mrs. Albert Glascock found the ring in the bride's cake. Mrs. Earl Mallow, of Toledo, the dime, Mrs. E. C. Harlow, the collar button, and Dr. Loring Brock, the thimble.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Clarence Estey, of Columbus, caught the bouquet.

Seventy guests were seated throughout the rooms, and Caterer Eastman served faultlessly an elaborate course supper.

The wedding gifts showed a handsome ensemble of cut glass, silver and bric-a-brac.

The young couple drove to Mt. Sterling in an auto and took the train for Columbus and lake cities. They expect to visit Mr. Earl Mallow and wife in Toledo, but have no definite plans as to their trip. They were given a great send off.

Upon their return they will make their home with the bride-groom's parents.

Receiving at the reception with Mr. and Mrs. Bonham were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mallow.

Mrs. Bonham was wearing black satin, veiled in Marquisette, relief of white.

Mrs. Mallow wore a handsome gown of amethyst brocade, satin, with jeweled bands.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Miss Jessie Bonham, looking lovely in white charmeuse, trimmed in shadow lace, and Miss Nina Bonham, extremely pretty in yellow crepe, with tunic of white lace, and touch of turquoise velvet.

The out-of-town guests were the bride's brother, Mr. Frank Bonham, and Mr. Scott Bonham, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Estey, Dr. Evan Brock, Miss Mary Dunn, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Mallow, Mrs. Prudence Cratz, of Toledo; Mrs. Walter McCoy, Greensburg, Ind.; Mrs. Clay Johnson, Dayton; Miss Gertrude Ware, Frankfort; Mr. Ralph Brown, Springfield.

The Presbyterian church Woman's Missionary society met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Rogers, North Hinde street. Assisting her as hostesses were: Mesdames Blakeley, Wm. Smith, Chaffin, Worrell, Allen, Howell, Millikan, Hess, J. L. Rothrock, Post, McClure and Lansing.

Reports given by secretary-treasurer and secretary of literature and letter read from Mrs. Candor, Presbyterian missionary in Bogota for many years. Mrs. Kerr presented the amendment to the state constitution regarding women holding office in institutions of women and children to be acted upon in November. The society will give its influence in aid of changing a law which it believes has held for 52 years and needs changing.

The Nominating committee, Mrs. Fullerton, Bailey and Reid, made their report and the officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, vice-presidents, Mrs. G. M. Latick, Mrs. R. S. Quinn, Mrs. W. Boynton Gage, secretary, Mrs. W. B. Woodward; assistant secretary, Miss Alta Sprenger; secretary of literature, Mrs. J. H. Williams; treasurer, Mrs. M. E. The president appointed a program committee, Miss Jackson, Mrs. Hitchcock and Williams.

Special attention of the ladies was called to the box to be sent to Watch academy, Utah, this week if possible.

Miss Emma Jackson gave a fine book review, "Mormonism, the Islam of America," noting especially the points of the original start of the Mormon faith; the cunningly organized power which holds in a firm grasp, Utah, and to a large extent, ten other states. Their power as political is meant to reach out to establish a monarchy here and rule this nation, and Reed Smoot who is Representative, chairman of Public Bureau, and has even at times occupied the executive chair, is one of their strong forces.

Miss Jackson brought out many of the doctrines, showed the big aims the Mormons are working out and what a menace to this country are these one million and a half of people.

Misses Inez and Alva Rodgers sang a beautiful duet, "I Do—Don't You?" and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

A large number were in attendance and appreciated both the interesting meeting and the social time afterwards with dainty refreshments.

The young matrons' Bridge club enjoyed the opening meeting of the season with Mrs. Ellis Daugherty Wednesday afternoon.

The women of the Mary Boyd Hale Bible class are enjoying a picnic spread and delightful Kensington in the basement dining-room of the Presbyterian church today.

The afternoon is being devoted to sociability over the fancy work and the plan is to remain for evening lunch and attend prayer meeting in a body.

Two BOTTLES OF GIN A DAY.

The Daily Fluid Ration of Samson, Who Is Seventy-nine.

San Francisco.—David Samson, who is said to have been the first American to establish commercial relations between the Philippine Islands and the United States, has retired from active work with the concern he founded and is hale and spry at seventy-nine, which was apparent when he landed from the steamer China.

"I have never done any dieting to speak of," declared "Uncle Dave," as he is known in the orient, "and for the past sixty years I have drunk close to two bottles of gin every day."

BAN TEMPERANCE BOYS.

Abstainers Expelled From an Old University in Germany.

Greifswald, Germany.—The expulsion of some students from Greifswald university because of their total abstinence principles has caused a sensation here. The university is one of the oldest in Germany, having been founded in 1456.

The students, numbering about 1,000, were called together in June to attend a typical "beer evening" in celebration of the emperor's jubilee. Several abstainers protested and were reprimanded by the officials, who said the protest was an "incitement to action against academic customs." One of the abstainers criticised the reprimand and was sentenced to three days' confinement in the university dungeon.

Further protests led to even more drastic steps, and two of the students were expelled.

RECALLS MOLLY PITCHER.

Mrs. Samuel Sipe, 101 Years Old, Was Friend of Monmouth Heroine.

Carlisle, Pa.—Mrs. Samuel Sipe, who was a child friend of Molly Pitcher and a resident of Carlisle for ninety-four years, celebrated her one hundred and first birthday here.

Mrs. Sipe vividly recalls history spanning a century and is in possession of all her faculties. She recalls Molly Pitcher, the heroine of Monmouth, and refutes the assertion that she is buried in any other place than Carlisle, where memorials have been placed over the woman's grave.

Mrs. Sipe was born in Switzerland in 1812 and came to Carlisle when she was eight years old, when this place was but the hunting ground for settlers in the Cumberland valley.

WONDER WHAT THE PRICE OF EAGLE EGGS IS TODAY?

OH WELL IF I CAN'T SELL IT I CAN EAT IT!

GREAT TIME PROMISED FOR HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Committee in Charge Makes Plans For Event Bigger and Better Than The Well-Remembered Affair of Last Year.—Public Parade Will be New Attraction and Everyone is Invited to Join in.

Elaborate plans were perfected Tuesday night for the Halloween entertainment to be pulled off at the Y. M. C. A. on October 31st. The committee decided that in order to help all have a good time that night a parade should be planned in which everyone in the city could take part.

It would be something which those who masquerade can enjoy and in which the older folks who have long since lost interest and spirit in celebrating of all saints night can participate by getting out and seeing the younger folks have a good time under proper direction.

So a big parade will be formed of all who desire to enter, march over the central portion of the city, amid the hum of the many voices, the cheers of the youngsters and music by a dutch band. After the parade the crowd will separate and go to the various parties.

The big doings at the Y. M. C. A. is planned for all members of the institution, and all are urged to be present. The doors will open at 8 o'clock and close at 8:30. All must be properly masqueraded in order to gain admittance. A small charge has been decided upon, and tickets for the big time will be on sale next week at 10 cents each. This will entitle the holder to a good hallowe'en lunch during the course of the evening.

Last year will not be in it with the things to be pulled off this year. On the grotto! Imagine entering a dark and dismal cave where weird sounds are heard. See the small and mysterious people who inhabit such regions, running hither and thither, now darting in a dark recess of a cave, now disappearing entirely thru the floor. Men without heads, skeletons and weird inscriptions, viz: "Abandon hope, all ye who enter here."

Suffice it to say that spirits, skeletons and ghosts will walk and talk, hair will stand on end and hearts will pit-a-pat. The hours will go by and the day after it is over all will be saying "well now, wasn't that the greatest ever. Mystifying, I should say so. Heart-rendering, well I guess. Horrible, yes in the extreme. Mirth provoking, oh, gee! I nearly died."

HORSE THIEVES ARE INDICTED

The Ross county grand jury returned an indictment against Frank DeLong, the young man residing between Clarksburg and New Holland, who was indicted by the Pickaway county grand jury for forgery.

DeLong was charged with the theft of a black gelding valued at $250, which was stolen from George Grey of Ross county.

William Zickfoos was indicted for horse stealing and for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Thomas O. Leakey, one of the young men arrested in this city charged with stealing a bicycle, escaped indictment. However, he had entered a plea of guilty to a previous indictment and was sentenced to the penitentiary.

Harrison House, the man who was arrested on a similar charge as that of Leakey, was indicted on a charge of petit larceny, the wheel having a value of $25.

In all thirteen cases were examined into, and five cases were ignored.

DEMAND HONESTY IN U. S. COMMERCE

Bill Will Prevent Misbranding of Wares.

Washington.—With the approval of the president legislation barring from interstate commerce any article which is misbranded and fraudulently represented, which would apply the pure food law principle to all commerce between the states, will be advanced at the approaching regular session of congress. The bill will originate in the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, and a subcommittee already has been named to draft it.

President Wilson heartily indorses the principle of the legislation and has so advised leaders in congress. A dozen bills to close the arteries of commerce to misrepresented wares have been introduced in this congress. Similar bills were introduced in prior congresses, but no one has taken them seriously, and it is known to only a few that President Wilson has been giving this subject considerable attention and has said, "Go ahead."

The subcommittee of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce has been delegated by Chairman Adamson to take the various "pure manufactures" bills introduced and to draft a general measure which would apply the pure food law idea to practically everything manufactured and shipped across state lines.

Chiropractic Appeals To The Intellect

The diseases successfully treated by this method are those resulting from an abnormal condition of the machinery of the body. An abnormal condition means a lack of nerve force; this once restored nature readily proceeds to carry on its functions. If you are sick and you are being benefitted by your present method of treatment, you should stick to it. If not, it is your plain duty to consult a chiropractor and get well.

HUSBAND AVERS WIFE KILLED YOUNG SON

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Woman Held Following Death of Son From Broken Ribs.

East Liverpool, O., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Cora Householder was arrested at Chester, W. Va., on a charge of murderous assault, following the death of her son Donald, 10. The charge was preferred by the boy's father, Warren Householder, divorced husband of the woman. Dr. R. C. Campbell, who attended the boy, ascribed his death as due to peritonitis, caused by the fracture of three ribs.

Householder says the boy told him his mother threw him out of bed and kicked him breaking the ribs. The mother denies the charge and says the boy told her he was injured in a football game. Mrs. Householder is now being held in her home in lieu of $500 bail, which was fixed by the mayor's court.

INSANITY IS NOT ON THE INCREASE

CORRECTS POPULAR ERROR

Dr. Shepherd Denies That Insanity Is On the Increase.

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—"Alarmists are continually shouting that insanity is on the increase. It isn't true," asserts Dr. A. F. Shepherd, member of the state board of administration and insanity expert.

"They quote the increased number of inmates in asylums and hospitals," says Dr. Shepherd. "The figures don't mean there's any more insanity. They simply show that more people are being brought into the institutions than in the past."

"The time was when the insane asylum was the place for raving maniacs. It's a hospital now—a place of treatment. People don't wait for their relatives to go stark mad before they bring them to the hospital. Patients are brought in while they are still in the early stages of dementia. That's why nearly 30 out of every 100 go back home again cured."

"Lunatics are the commonest things on earth. Every town has them—the fanatics, 'tough characters,' old women—they're just as crazy as most of the inmates of asylums. We all know 'em and love 'em."

"There are 10,000 insane patients in hospitals in this state. That's one in every 400 inhabitants. But think of the thousands of 'queer ones' outside."

State Says Jealousy Cause of Poisoning Rear Admiral Eaton

By Associated Press.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 16.—The States' case against Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, who is charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, by poisoning him, was outlined today by the assistant state's attorney, Fred G. Katzman, who said that jealousy was the cause assigned for the deed.

He admitted that the case against Mrs. Eaton was mostly circumstantial evidence, but declared the government had evidence strong enough to show that the admiral came to his death by poison administered by the hands of his wife.

The assistant prosecutor told the jury that if they should find Mrs. Eaton had killed her husband while suffering from hallucinations that would constitute an irresponsible impulse, and that the state would be satisfied with a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity.

MOVING PICTURES FOR JEFFERSONVILLE

A plan is on foot among Jeffersonville business men to establish a moving picture show in that place as a business venture in drawing persons to that town during certain nights of the week, and to furnish entertainment for every one in general.

Efforts have been made to secure the Jefferson township hall which is the largest public meeting place in the town, but some objection has been raised, it is understood, on account of the alleged danger connected with the moving picture booth.

Some arrangements are expected within a short time whereby the town will have moving pictures each night, or at least several nights each week.

NEW FLEET TO BE MIGHTIEST OF ALL

Canal Will Make Atlantic and Pacific One.

THE PRIDE OF AMERICANS.

As Oceans Join, Both Fleets of Uncle Sam's Navy May Become One, Thus Forming Greatest Naval Unit in World—Twenty-five Dreadnoughts to Be Filed Through the Canal.

New York.—How many people in this land realize that the days of the Atlantic fleet are numbered? The Atlantic fleet, that great organization which inspired Kipling to help immortalize Bob Evans, which brought applause from an admiring world when it sailed out of Hampton Roads and steamed triumphantly back again at the end of the first great naval circumnavigation of the globe; which thrilled millions of Americans when majestically it passed in review before the president of the United States on its way to sea last year; the fleet of which every American is and of right ought to be proud. Yet the day of its passing is not far off.

But the going is also the coming, for simultaneously with the end of the world famed Atlantic fleet there will come into existence a still greater fleet, to be known as the United States fleet; a fleet that will pass at the will of the naval chiefs from ocean to ocean and which will be—as the Atlantic fleet of today is not—equally important in the defensive scheme of both the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard.

The Atlantic fleet of today is a splendidly officered and manned organization of twenty-one super-Dreadnoughts, Dreadnoughts and first line battleships. As a fighting unit it is certainly the equal and, in the opinion of thousands who are in a position to judge, the superior, ship to ship, of any fleet that sails any sea under any flag. It is a fleet whose vessels total in displacement more than 360,000 tons, exclusive of auxiliaries. It numbers among its units the great super-Dreadnought Arkansas, which less than a fortnight ago made civilization take notice when it was officially announced that her gunners had smashed every existing record made with guns of the twelve inch type.

The day when the Atlantic fleet passes gloriously into history and the United States fleet takes its place in the lineup of the world's great naval organizations will be the day when the old Oregon, the famous ship of 1898 that sailed around South America and joined Sampson in the nick of time to win an undying name at Santiago, will lead the American fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific via the Panama canal. Behind the Oregon, which for a day only will be a flagship, will trail

In a majestic line the fleet will trail the fleet that is to be the fleet of the future. The fleet will include twenty-one Dreadnoughts and super-Dreadnoughts, as many more battleships of line. The displacement of the fleet will be approximately half a million tons.

The fleet's thousand guns of it fired simultaneously would in smokeless powder mean 1,000, the projectiles would weigh approximately 231,000 pounds, total firing cost would be in excess of $145,000.

In order properly to appreciate the magnitude of the United States fleet that is to be it may not be out of place to say a word or two of the Atlantic fleet of yesterday and today, the fleet which sailed around the globe under the command of Admiral Evans, Thomas and Sperry, of great fleet commanders, dead. When Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, the fleet under Evans' command steamed past the Virginia cap December day in 1907 there was an American worthy the name, not feel a heart throb of pride, saw or pictured that magnitude of vessels which the flagship cut led out to sea, from her fluttering the two starred line of "Fighting Bob" Evans, who then beginning, as events prove, last voyage as commander in the Atlantic fleet.

The United States fleet is to be first under the American flag, two entire divisions will be of vessels of the all big line. That fleet, when it officially exists, will probably comprise five fighting ships in addition to great fleet of naval auxiliaries, flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers and submarines. The New York will be the flagship, and therefore it will be the place to tell briefly the kind of a ship this namesake Empire State is to be. She will in her main battery ten guns, newly perfected fourteen inch each so mounted that all can be in a single broadside to either starboard. Each of these guns will fire a projectile weighing 1,400 pounds, meaning a broadside of 14,000 pounds to fire which will cost the States government $1,770 each. Such a broadside will mean the explosion of 3,700 pounds of smoke powder. This powder wholesale 53 cents a pound, meaning $1,900 broadside.

Curling Wood. Wood has contagious diseases. It sticks of wood in a lumber yard, it can get sick and infect other timbers, later may develop the disease, they are supporting great new buildings. Some of the diseases so contagious that in a building will jump several feet across a brick to some stick of healthy wood. Cures have been discussed by American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Most of the diseases are of dry rot caused by fungi and most of the varieties of the fungi cannot stand heat much over 100 degrees, so the most likely cure is to close a building up tight, if any are infected, and heat it up to 140 degrees. Even this is not successful, for ends of beams are led in the outer brick walls and heat may not reach them.—Each

WILL QUARANTINE
FAYETTE COUNTY

Fine of $50 to $500 Is the Penalty for Persons Violating Quarantine Soon to Be Established in This County for Eradication of Hog Cholera—Something of Interest to All Fayette County Citizens.

Stock Dealers Can Ship Only in Disinfected Cars, and Special Permit Must be Secured Before Swine Can be Unloaded or Driven Into Stock Yards.

FAYETTE THE BEGINNING
POINT FOR STATE WIDE WORK

Bulletins on the Work Here Will be Sent Broadcast to Farmers Throughout the State and All Eyes Will be on Fayette County While Work of Extermination is in Progress.

(Prepared expressly for The Herald by The Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Hog cholera is a needless disease, in the opinion of the state veterinary department, and next Monday a campaign against cholera will be started in Fayette county which eventually will develop into a state-wide fight of the disease with the expectation of eliminating it completely eventually.

A bulletin has been issued by State Veterinarian Paul Fischer, explaining the campaign in Fayette county. It will be sent broadcast to farmers throughout the state with in the next few weeks, and all farmers and agricultural organizations will watch with interest the elimination fight in Fayette county beginning Monday.

During the campaign $20,000 appropriated by the general assembly last spring for a test of cholera elimination will be used, and probably more will be appropriated when the work progresses. Strict quarantine of the entire county, of all cattle pens, and even of each farm will be maintained. Each of the 45,000 hogs in the county will be examined by state veterinarians to find traces of cholera, and all infected animals will be treated with serum manufactured at the state serum plant, near Reynoldsburg.

Fayette county was selected for the test campaign because 3714 of the 5639 voters in the county petitioned for the state to conduct it there, and because the county is in the heart of what is considered the hog raising district of the state.

"Warning—Hog Cholera Exists on These Premises. Owners of Healthy Herds are Warned to Keep Off." These words will be on placards which are to be posted at all entrances to farms having infected swine.

For farms whose hogs show no signs of the disease, this notice will be posted. "The Swine on These Premises Are Free From Cholera. Owners of Infected Herds are Warned to Keep Off."

At the intersection of every road with the county line, a sign will be posted announcing that "the moving, driving or hauling of swine across this line into Fayette county is forbidden by law under penalty of a fine of from $50 to $500."

To drive swine into stock yards or unloading them from cars into the yards will be prohibited except under special permit. Healthy swine may be shipped out in disinfected cars only, and this information will be given by signs posted conspicuously at all stock yards.

Headquarters will be established soon in Washington C. H., by the veterinary department, and from here will be distributed supplies and serum. It is probable several months will be occupied in taking a "hog census." Information will be gleaned by inspectors of the agricultural commission, and tabulated on blanks which show the size and nature of the farm, its owner, number of swine on the premises with their age and sex, nature of the soil and stable conditions, and other detailed item. The greater part of the output of the state's new serum plant will be used in Fayette county.

"We do not intend to stop with Fayette county," said Dr. Fischer today. "This will be the first unit on which we shall try to work eradication of hog cholera. After we have demonstrated that the disease is absolutely preventable when diseased animals are properly quarantined, the work will be extended to neighboring counties until the entire state has been covered. Thereafter the state boundary will be the line of battle until successful co-operation with other states will rid the entire country of the ravages of the plague."

Annual losses of stock in Fayette county have been 3 per cent during spring and winter months, and a much heavier loss during the summer and fall.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—William Sulzer is no longer governor of New York. A few minutes before noon today the High Court of Impeachment voted 43 to 12 for his removal. Senator Wendt and Judge Cullen excused themselves from voting.

The voting on the proposition of disbarment from ever holding a place of honor or trust in the state was voted down unanimously, with the exception of Judge Cullen, who excused himself.

The former governor received the news in silence at the executive mansion, where he had waited all morning to hear the result. He said he might issue a statement later.

Glynn became governor, and Robert E. Wagner, of New York, majority leader in the senate, lieutenant governor.

No official notice of removal was given Sulzer. The records of the court decision were filed with the proper officials, complying with all legal requirements.

EXPLOSION OF AIRSHIP
KILLS TWENTY-SEVEN

By Associated Press.

Johannsthal, Germany, Oct. 17.—The mammoth Zeppelin dirigible airship "L 2" was destroyed in mid-air at 10:15 this morning, and 27 persons aboard were killed, one man escaping fatal injuries.

The big air-ship, which was 600 feet long, exploded over the main thoroughfare of this city while 900 feet in the air, and the blazing canvas envelope and twisted aluminum frame, together with the horribly mutilated crew, plunged to the earth, nearly crushing scores of on-lookers.

The vessel was making a trial flight with a view to being accepted for the German Airship fleet. A number of prominent army and naval officials were among the ill-fated passengers.

When the craft struck the street the big crowd rushed in to render assistance, but only one man escaped death in the flames and long plunge to earth.

Berlin, Germany, October 17.—

Capt. Haesler, lieutenant Koch and Sergeant Mante, all of the German Aviation corps, were the victims of aeroplane disasters this morning.

Chiropractic Appeals To The Intellect

The diseases successfully treated by this method are those resulting from an abnormal condition of the machinery of the body. An abnormal condition means a lack of nerve force; this once restored nature readily proceeds to carry on its functions. If you are sick and you are being benefitted by your present method of treatment, you should stick to it. If not, it is your plain duty to consult a chiropractor and get well.

HUSBAND AVERS WIFE KILLED YOUNG SON

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Woman Held Following Death of Son From Broken Ribs.

East Liverpool, O., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Cora Householder was arrested at Chester, W. Va., on a charge of murderous assault, following the death of her son Donald, 10. The charge was preferred by the boy's father, Warren Householder, divorced husband of the woman. Dr. R. C. Campbell, who attended the boy, ascribed his death as due to peritonitis, caused by the fracture of three ribs.

Householder says the boy told him his mother threw him out of bed and kicked him, breaking the ribs. The mother denies the charge and says the boy told her he was injured in a football game. Mrs. Householder is now being held in her home in lieu of $500 bail, which was fixed by the mayor's court.

INSANITY IS NOT ON THE INCREASE

CORRECTS POPULAR ERROR

Dr. Shepherd Denies That Insanity Is On the Increase.

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—"Alarmists are continually shouting that insanity is on the increase. It isn't true," asserts Dr. A. F. Shepherd, member of the state board of administration and insanity expert.

"They quote the increased number of inmates in asylums and hospitals," says Dr. Shepherd. "The figures don't mean there's any more insanity. They simply show that more people are being brought into the institutions than in the past."

"The time was when the insane asylum was the place for raving maniacs. It's a hospital now—a place of treatment. People don't wait for their relatives to go stark mad before they bring them to the hospital. Patients are brought in while they are still in the early stages of dementia. That's why nearly 30 out of every 100 go back home again cured."

"Lunatics are the commonest things on earth. Every town has them—the fanatics, 'town characters,' old women—they're all just as crazy as most of the inmates of asylums. We all know 'em and love 'em."

"There are 10,000 insane patients in hospitals in this state. That's one in every 400 inhabitants. But think of the thousands of 'queer ones' outside."

State Says Jealousy Cause of Poisoning Rear Admiral Eaton

By Associated Press.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 16.—The States' case against Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, who is charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, by poisoning him, was outlined today by the assistant state's attorney, Fred G. Katzman, who said that jealousy was the cause assigned for the deed.

He admitted that the case against Mrs. Eaton was mostly circumstantial evidence, but declared the government had evidence strong enough to show that the admiral came to his death by poison administered by the hands of his wife.

The assistant prosecutor told the jury that if they should find Mrs. Eaton had killed her husband while suffering from hallucinations that would constitute an irresponsible impulse, and that the state would be satisfied with a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity.

MOVING PICTURES FOR JEFFERSONVILLE

A plan is on foot among Jeffersonville business men to establish a moving picture show in that place as a business venture in drawing persons to that town during certain nights of the week, and to furnish entertainment for every one in general.

Efforts have been made to secure the Jefferson township hall which is the largest public meeting place in the town, but some objection has been raised, it is understood, on account of the alleged danger connected with the moving picture booth.

Some arrangements are expected within a short time whereby the town will have moving pictures each night, or at least several nights each week.

NEW FLEET TO BE MIGHTIEST OF ALL

Canal Will Make Atlantic and Pacific One.

THE PRIDE OF AMERICANS.

As Oceans Join, Both Fleets of Uncle Sam's Navy May Become One, Thus Forming Greatest Naval Unit in World—Twenty-five Dreadnoughts to File Through the Canal.

New York.—How many people in this land realize that the days of the Atlantic fleet are numbered? The Atlantic fleet, that great organization which inspired Kipling to help immortalize Bob Evans, which brought applause from an admiring world when it sailed out of Hampton Roads and steamed triumphantly back again at the end of the first great naval circumnavigation of the globe; which thrilled millions of Americans when majestically it passed in review before the president of the United States on its way to sea last year; the fleet of which every American is and of right ought to be proud. Yet the day of its passing is not far off.

But the going is also the coming, for simultaneously with the end of the world famed Atlantic fleet there will come into existence a still greater fleet, to be known as the United States fleet; a fleet that will pass at the will of the naval chiefs from ocean to ocean and which will be as the Atlantic fleet of today is not—equally important in the defensive scheme of both the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard.

The Atlantic fleet of today is a splendidly officered and manned organization of twenty-one super-Dreadnoughts, Dreadnoughts and first line battleships. As a fighting unit it is certainly the equal and, in the opinion of thousands who are in a position to judge, the superior, ship to ship, of any fleet that sails any sea under any flag. It is a fleet whose vessels total in displacement more than 360,000 tons, exclusive of auxiliaries. It numbers among its units the great super-Dreadnought Arkansas, which less than a fortnight ago made civilization take notice when it was officially announced that her gunners had smashed every existing record made with guns of the twelve inch type.

The day when the Atlantic fleet passes gloriously into history and the United States fleet takes its place in the lineup of the world's great naval organizations will be the day when the old Oregon, the famous ship of 1898 that sailed around South America and joined Sampson in the nick of time to win an undying name at Santiago, will lead the American fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific via the Panama canal. Behind the Oregon, which for a day only will be a flagship, will trail

In a majestic line the fleet that is being born. The fleet will include twelve Dreadnoughts and super-Dreadnoughts and as many more battleships of the first line. The displacement of the fleet will approximate half a million tons.

The fleet's thousand guns of all types if fired simultaneously would burn up in smokeless powder more than $50,000, the projectiles would weigh approximately 231,000 pounds, and the total firing cost would be slightly in excess of $145,000.

In order properly to appreciate the magnitude of the United States fleet that is to be it may not be out of place to say a word or two of the Atlantic fleet of yesterday and today, the splendid fleet which sailed around the globe under Evans, Thomas and Sperry, a trio of great fleet commanders, all now dead. When Theodore Roosevelt as president of the United States bade the fleet under Evans godspeed as it steamed past the Virginia capes that December day in 1907 there was not an American worthy the name who did not feel a heart throb of pride as he saw or pictured that magnificent line of vessels which the flagship Connecticut led out to sea, from her foremast fluttering the two starred blue pennant of "Fighting Bob" Evans, who was then beginning, as events proved, his last voyage as commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet.

The United States fleet is to be the first under the American flag in which two entire divisions will be made up of vessels of the all big gun type. That fleet, when it officially comes into existence, will probably comprise twenty-five fighting ships in addition to a great fleet of naval auxiliaries and flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers and submarines. The New York will be the flagship, and therefore it is not out of place to tell briefly just what kind of a ship this namesake of the Empire State is to be. She will carry in her main battery ten guns of the newly perfected fourteen inch type, each so mounted that all can be used in a single broadside to either port or starboard. Each of these guns will fire a projectile weighing 1,400 pounds, meaning a broadside of 14,000 pounds, to fire which will cost the United States government $1,770 each time. Such a broadside will mean the explosion of 3,700 pounds of smokeless powder. This powder wholesale costs 53 cents a pound, meaning $1,960 per broadside.

Curling Wood. Wood has contagious diseases! A stick of wood in a lumber yard may be sick and infect other timbers, which later may develop the disease when they are supporting great weights in a new building. Some of the diseases are so contagious that in a building they will jump several feet across masonry or brick to some stick of healthy wood. Cures have been discussed by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Most of the diseases are varieties of dry rot caused by fungus, and most of the varieties of the dry rot fungi cannot stand heat much over 100 degrees, so the most likely cure is to close a building up tight, if any beams are infected, and heat it up to 120 or 140 degrees. Even this is not always successful, for ends of beams are buried in the outer brick walls and the heat may not reach them.—Exchange.
